

Jack Swash
70 Woodlea
Coulby Newham
Middlesbrough
07938166413

Email: A0112347@live.tees.ac.uk

Profile

A highly motivated first year information technology student with python and HTML knowledge. This has been improved due to my university course and my work as a Group Leader.

Education & Qualifications

2020 – present Teesside University

BA (Hons) Information Technology

1st Year:

Systems design & Databases (76.8%), Information Security and Cybercrime (73), Python Programming (47), Business Systems Development (), Rapid Application Development (), Secure Data Acquisition ().

2017 – 2020 Middlesbrough College

BTEC Subsidiary Diploma: Website Application and Development - DDD

Software Skills

MySQL, Python, Mendix, Microsoft Teams, Microsoft Office, HTML, CSS,

Employment/ Work Experience & Volunteering

October 2018 – Present Tesco – Customer Assistant

- During this role I serve customers who were buying their shopping and also interacted with any customers who needed help or information, whether it is about opening/closing times, where certain products are, if we have certain products, etc.

Memberships

Teeside University Tabletop Society (Since 2020), this is a society for people who enjoy tabletop games such as Dungeons and Dragons and trading card games such as Magic The Gathering

Teeside University Esports and Gaming Society – a society for people more focusing on online video games as opposed to tabletop games, with it linking in with the university esports leagues run by NSE and NUEL.

Referees

Mr Mansha Nawaz
Senior Lecturer
School of Computing
Teesside University, Middlesbrough
M.Nawaz@tees.ac.uk

Mr Duncan Skilton
Computing Lecturer
Middlesbrough College
Dock Street, Middlesbrough
D.Skilton@Middlesbro.ac.uk